A description of the Company's business:

7digital is a global business with providing access to over 50 million music tracks for download and streaming services. 7digital's music catalogue is similar in size with the market-leading consumer services. 7digital provides its customers with turnkey white label music services as well as access to a cloud-based software platform that allows them to create and develop their own music service. 7digital has a PaaS offering, a cloud-based service which makes it simpler and more cost effective for 7digital's customers to access the rights and technology necessary to run a music service. 7digital allows consumer facing companies, which include mobile device manufacturers, telecom and television service providers, broadcasters, retailers and consumer brands, to provide innovative new music services to their end users. 7digital operates B2B technology and music services and B2C music services under the 7digital brand. 7digital also provides creative services to its clients, including radio (and other content) production, editorial, merchandising, event production, playlisting and other forms of curation.

B2B

(a) Platform

7digital's core business is to provide an API for third parties who want to create digital music services, either standalone or bundled within their own device or product offering. 7digital's platform simplifies access to music by offering a combination of a licensed music catalogue alongside the cloud-based technology platform and client-side software, being software hosted by 7digital's clients. These are needed to create on-demand music streaming and download services, radio-style services and other services. The 7digital platform is open, with open-source code wrappers to reduce complexity and time to market for its potential customers and can be used for building products on any type of connected device. Typically, customers pay a set-up fee, monthly license fees for using the 7digital platform and 7digital will also take a revenue share of any music-based revenue generated by the service, including transaction or subscription revenues.

(b) Devices and operating systems

In addition to providing an open API-based platform from which third parties can build their own services, 7digital also provides client-side software applications for the leading OS and device platforms, including Desktop, Android, iOS, BlackBerry, Windows 8 and Windows Phone, Google Chromecast, Firefox, HTML5 and Sonos.

(c) Music licences

7digital has obtained music licences in 82 countries in North America, Latin America, Europe, Asia-Pacific and Africa. These licences are obtained from hundreds of individual record labels, music publishers and music collecting societies. Music licences vary from country to country and by usage type. As of March 2016, the catalogue consists of more than 50 million tracks.

B2C

7digital.com is a digital music store, one of the UK's first when launched in 2004. 7digital.com operates 19 download stores, of which 18 are country specific, and one is offered globally.
